

business information submitted in writing shall clearly mark each page "BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL" at the top.

(c) The Committee may deny a request that it exempt from public inspection any particular business information if it determines that such information is not entitled to exemption under paragraph (a) of this section. In the event of such denial, the party submitting the particular business information will be notified of the reasons for the denial and will be permitted to withdraw his submission.

§ 2004.1 General.

This information is furnished for the guidance of the public and in compliance with the requirements of section 552 of title 5, U.S.C. as amended.

§ 2004.2 Availability of records.

(a) All identifiable records of the Office of the Special Representative shall be made available to the public upon compliance with the procedures established in this part, except to the extent that a determination is made to withhold a record subject to exemption under 5 U.S.C. 552(b).

(b) All requests for records must be in writing and shall be addressed to Freedom of Information Officer, Office of the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations, 1800 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20506. Requests should reasonably identify the particular record or records sought. Such a description, if possible, should include date, format, subject matter, office originating or receiving the record, and the name of any person to whom the record is known to relate.

§ 2004.3 [Reserved]

§ 2004.4 Records which may be exempt from disclosure.

(a) The following categories of records maintained by the Office of the STR may be exempted from disclosure:

(1) Records specifically authorized under criteria established by an executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and are in fact properly classified pursuant to such executive order.

(2) Records related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the agency.

(3) Records specifically exempted from disclosure by statute, including but not limited to information relating to trade negotiations exempted under trade negotiations exempted under Public Law 93-618, section 135(g)(1) (A) and B and section 135(g)(2).

(4) Records of trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential.

(5) Records which are inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums, letters, telegrams, or airgrams which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency.

(6) Records such as personnel and medical files and similar files the public disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(7) Such other records that fall within exceptions noted in 5 U.S.C. 552(b) (7), (8) and (9).

(b) Any reasonably segregable non-exempt portion of a record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of the portions which are exempt under paragraph (a) of this section. Normally a portion of a record shall be considered reasonably segregable when segregation can produce an intelligible record which is not distorted out of context and does not contradict the record being withheld.

§ 2004.5 Classified records and information from other agencies.

(a) A Classification Review Committee is hereby established within STR to make determinations on the applicability of the exemption for classified documents. The Committee will be chaired by a staff official designated by the Special Representative and will consist of the Chairman and 2 STR Officials designated by him who have authority to classify and declassify documents.

(b) The applicability of the exemption for classified information requires a determination that the record in question is specifically authorized under the criteria established by Executive Order 11652 to be kept classified and is in fact properly classified pursuant to that order. This determination shall be made whenever possible before the initial denial under § 204.4(a)(1). It must in any case be made prior to the decision of an appeal under § 2004.7. No denial should be based solely on the existence of a classification marking on the record, and there shall be a substantive review of the validity of the classification to the maximum extent feasible within the time limits for a denial under § 2004.4.

(c) When a request for a STR record encompasses classified information originated or received from another department or agency, the request for that information shall be referred to the originator or other source. The person requesting the record will be advised of the date and the addressee of the referral.

(d) The Classification Review Committee will, at the request of another agency, make recommendations on the release of material concerning "national defense or foreign policy" originally classified by another agency but which is of significant subject-matter interest to STR.

§ 2004.6 Release or denial of request for records.

Written requests for inspection or copying of records shall be granted or denied only by the Freedom of Information Officer or his designee. Responses to written requests shall be in writing, shall specify the reasons for any denial therefore, and shall advise the person requesting of the right to appeal any denial to the Freedom of Information Appeals Committee.

§ 2004.7 Appeals.

(a) A Freedom of Information Appeals Committee is hereby established, consisting of the Special Representative or his designee as chairman, and 3 STR staff officials designated by the Special Representative, none of whom were members of the Classification Committee which originally made the determination on the requested information.

(b) Review of an initial denial under § 2004.6 may be requested by the person who submitted the original request for a record. The review (hereinafter the appeal) must be requested in writing within 30 days of the date that the person requesting the record is informed either:

(1) That the request is denied completely, or

(2) That all records which are being furnished in response to his request have been released and he has been so informed.

(c) If the appeal is granted, the person making the appeal shall be immediately notified and copies of the releasable documents shall be made available promptly thereafter upon receipt of appropriate fees as set forth in § 2004.9. If the appeal is denied in whole or part, the person making the request shall be immediately notified of the decision and of the provisions of judicial review of STR's denial of the request.

(d) In the event a determination is not issued within the appropriate time limit and the person making the request chooses to initiate a court action against STR, the determination process shall continue and the Freedom of Information Appeals Committee may review any initial denial of the requested record.

§ 2004.8 Time limits.

(a) An initial response under § 2004.6 shall be made within 10 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the receipt of a request for a record under this part by the Freedom of Information Officer or his designee. An appeal under § 2004.7 shall be decided within 20 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) after the receipt of such an appeal by the Appeals Committee.

(b) The time limits for initial decision and for an appeal decision begins on the date the request or appeal is actually received by STR. If requests or appeals not properly marked "Freedom of Information Request" or "Freedom of Information Act Appeal" on the request or appeal are inadvertently delayed in reaching the Freedom of Information Officer or the Appeals Committee they will not be deemed received by STR until actually received by the Freedom of Information Officer or Appeals Committee. In such event, the person making the request or appeal will be furnished a notice of the effective date of receipt.

(c) In unusual circumstances as specified in this paragraph, the Freedom of Information Officer or his designee may extend the time limits in paragraph (a) of this section by written notice to the person requesting a record under this part, which notice shall set forth the reasons for such extension and the date on which a determination or appeal decision is expected to be dispatched. No such notice shall specify a date which would result in an extension of either the initial determination period, or the appeal period, or both, for more than 10 working days. As used in this paragraph "unusual circumstances" means, but only to the extent reasonably necessary to the proper processing of the particular request:

(1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from overseas posts or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;

(2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a volumi-

15 CFR Ch. XX (1-1-04 Edition)

nous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or

(3) The need for consultations, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request, or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

(d) Where the responsible official believes that further consideration of a request may result in the release of additional records or portions thereof, the expiration of the time period allocated by the Freedom of Information Officer or his designee does not require the termination of that consideration, and it should be continued with a view to maximum disclosure of requested records within a reasonable period of time.

§ 2004.9 Fees schedule.

(a) Fees schedule for the search and reproduction of information available under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), as amended:

(1) Search for records. Five dollars per hour when the search is conducted by a clerical employee. Eight dollars per hour when the search is conducted by a professional employee. No charge for searches of less than one hour.

(2) Duplication of records. Records will be duplicated at a rate of $.15 per page for all copying of 4 pages or more.

(3) Other. When no specific fee has been established for a service, or the request for a service does not fall under one of the above categories due to the amount or type thereof, the Freedom of Information Act Officer is authorized to establish an appropriate fee based on "direct costs" as provided in the Freedom of Information Act. Examples of services covered by this provision include searches involving computer time or special travel, transportation, or communications costs.

(b) Search costs are due and payable even if the record which was requested cannot be located after all reasonable efforts have been made, or if the Freedom of Information Officer or his designee or the Freedom of Information Appeals Committee determines that a record which has been requested, but which is exempt from disclosure under the Act, is to be withheld. Processing of a request for records will not be undertaken until the person requesting a record has paid in full for search and duplication charges for any previous document request under the Act.

(c) Where it is anticipated that the fees chargeable under this section will amount to more than $25, and the person requesting the record has not indicated in advance his willingness to pay fees as high as are anticipated, the person so requesting shall be promptly notified of the amount of the anticipated fee or such portion thereof as can readily be estimated. In instances where the estimated fees will greatly exceed $25, an advance deposit may be required. The notice or request for an advance deposit shall extend an offer to the person requesting the record to consult with the Administrative Officer of STR in an attempt to reformulate the request in a manner which will reduce the fees and meet the needs of the person requesting the record. Dispatch of such a notice or request shall suspend the running of the period for response by the Office of the STR until a reply is received from the person requesting the record.

(d) Fees must be paid in full prior to issuance of requested copies.

§ 2004.10 Fee payments.

(a) Remittances shall be in the form either of a personal check or bank draft drawn on a bank in the United States, or a postal money order. Remittances shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the United States and mailed to "the Administrative Officer", STR, 1800 G St. NW., Washington, DC 20506.

(b) A receipt for fees paid will be given only upon request. Refund of fees paid for services actually rendered will not be made.

(c) The STR Administrative Officer, may in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act, as amended, waive all or part of any fee provided for in this section which it is deemed to be in either the interest of STR or in the public interest.

§ 2004.11 Current index.

The Office of the STR maintains and makes available for public inspection and copying a current index providing identifying information for the public as to any matter which is issued, adopted, or promulgated after July 4, 1967, and which is retained as a record and is required by § 2004.2 to be made available or published. Publication of an index is deemed both unnecessary and impractical. However, copies of the index are available upon request for a fee of the direct cost of duplication.

§ 2004.12 Annual report to Congress.

(a) On or before March 1st of each calendar year, a report of STR's activities over the preceding calendar year relating to the Freedom of Information Act will be submitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate.

(b) The above report will include:

(1) The number of determinations made by STR not to comply with requests for records made to it under the Act and the reasons for each such determination;

(2) The number of appeals made by persons under the Act, the results of such appeals, and the reasons for the action by STR upon each appeal that results in a denial of information;

(3) The names and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial of records requested under the Act, and the number of instances of participation for each;

(4) The results of each (Civil Service Commission) proceeding conducted pursuant to the Act, including a report of the disciplinary action taken against the officer or employee who was primarily responsible for improperly withholding records or an explanation of why disciplinary action was not taken;

(5) A copy of every rule made by STR regarding the Act;

(6) A copy of the fee schedule and the total amount of fees collected by STR for making records available under the Act; and

(7) Such other information as indicates efforts by STR to administer fully the Act. (This should include, to the extent possible, data on the costs to STR of administering the Act.)

(c) STR, based in part on the information compiled for its annual report to Congress, will provide upon request assistance to the Department of Justice in the preparation of its annual report (also due each March 1st) to Congress concerning judicial cases arising under the provisions of the Act.

AUTHORITY: Pub. L. 93–579, 88 Stat. 1896 (5 U.S.C. 552a(f)).

SOURCE: 40 FR 48331, Oct. 14, 1975, unless otherwise noted.

§ 2005.0 Purpose and scope.

The purpose of these regulations is to provide certain safeguards for an individual against the invasion of his or her personal privacy by the Office of the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations (hereinafter frequently referred to as “STR”). These regulations are promulgated pursuant to the requirements for all Federal Agencies contained in 5 U.S.C. 552a(f).

§ 2005.1 Rules for determining if an individual is the subject of a record.

(a) Individuals desiring to know if a specific system of records maintained by STR contains a record pertaining to them should address their inquiries to the Administrative Officer, Office of the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations, Washington, DC 20506. The written inquiry should contain a specific reference to the system of records maintained by the STR listed in the STR Notice of Systems of Records or it should describe the type of record in sufficient detail to reasonably identify the system of records. Notice of STR systems of records subject to the Privacy Act will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and copies of the notices will be available upon request to the Administrative Officer when so published. A compilation of such notices will also be made and published by the Office of Federal Register, in accordance with section 5 U.S.C. 552a(f).

(b) At a minimum, the request should also contain sufficient identifying information to allow STR to determine if there is a record pertaining to the individual making the request in a particular system of records. In instances when the identification is insufficient to insure disclosure to the individual to whom the information pertains in view of the sensitivity of the information, STR reserves the right to solicit from the person requesting access to a record additional identifying information.

(c) Ordinarily the person requesting will be informed whether the named system of records contains a record pertaining to such person within 10 days of such a request (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal Federal holidays). Such a response will also contain or reference the procedures which must be followed by the individual making the request in order to gain access to the record.

(d) Whenever a response cannot be made within the 10 days, the Administrative Officer will inform the person making the request the reasons for the delay and the date of which a response may be anticipated.

§ 2005.2 Requests for access.

(a) Requirement for written requests. Individuals desiring to gain access to a record pertaining to them in a system of records maintained by STR must submit their request in writing in accordance with the procedures set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. Individuals who are employed by the STR may make their request on a regularly scheduled workday (Monday through Friday, excluding legal Federal holidays) between the hours of 9 am and 5:30 pm. Such requests for access by individuals employed by STR need not be made in writing.

(b) Procedures—(1) Content of the request. The request for access to a record in a system of records shall be addressed to the Administrative Officer at the address cited above, and shall
